My Dear Brother

Greetings!

I had no letter from you since a long ago. I received from you and this made me very happy. I kiss you from distance and hope this letter to reach you in good time. I learned from your letter dated 10.08.1957 that your brother passed away. I express my deep condolences to you for such a sad even. I would like to tell you that your brother had migrated from Bandar Pahlavi. Sometimes had been coming to Bandar Pahlavi alternatively to Ahmad's home. I saw him in Bandar Pahlavi about two years ago. He was living in Mazandaran Province. I've written two letters to you but received no response from you. Now I received a letter from you and wish to reply your letter. I had no information about this sad event happened to you. I asked the friends to analyze the events in Babol and will inform me within one week. You're right for criticizing me but please know that I had no information of the event. All of us will go this way. Please tell my hellos to your family members. I've already sent you some letters but received no response from you. I apologize because I didn't hear about the event my dear Teymur. May God bless you my dear friend.
